WONGABURRA HOME CARE

Wongaburra Society delivers not-for-profit, community-led aged care services in Beaudesert and surrounding areas, providing a caring, inclusive environment where older community members can live with independence, dignity, and purpose.

We are dedicated to offering affordable and transparent support under the Support at Home Program and other accredited aged care services, ensuring that every individual receives person-centred care grounded in respect, choice, and connection to community.

Wongaburra Home Care reviews its service pricing annually to ensure fees remain fair, transparent, and sustainable. The prices in this guide reflect increased service delivery costs, including wages, inflation, fuel and travel, insurance, training, recruitment, and staff retention.

Billing Policy

- All Support at Home services are billed in 15-minute increments, with a minimum one-hour charge per visit.
- Travel, preparation, or specific therapist preference may incur additional costs, agreed upon prior to service delivery.
- After-hours and public holiday rates apply only when services are delivered during those periods.
- Clients, representatives, family members or advocates are encouraged to contact Wongaburra Home Care if they have questions about this Price List Guide or wish to discuss how the updated pricing may affect their services, care arrangements or budget.

Governance and Quality Assurance

Wongaburra's Support at Home pricing and service delivery are reviewed annually by the Wongaburra Society to ensure:

- Compliance with the Strengthened Aged Care Quality Standards and Support at Home pricing principles.
- AT-HM, End-of-Life Pathway and Restorative Care Pathway supports must be approved by Wongaburra and documented in the client's support plan, care plan, budget, purchase order or written instruction before services, equipment, home modifications or purchases are arranged or invoiced.
- Alignment with the organisation's Cultural Safety Framework, ensuring care that respects country, kinship, and community values.
- Transparency and fairness for all clients, with fees that reflect true service costs and community needs.
- Consideration of the true cost of service delivery, including workforce costs, travel, insurance, training, compliance obligations, and other operational costs required to maintain safe, reliable and sustainable care.

Our Commitment

Wongaburra Home Care acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we provide care in Beaudesert and surrounding communities.

As a non-denominational, community-led organisation, Wongaburra Home Care is committed to delivering inclusive, culturally safe, and person-centred support for all individuals and families who entrust us with their care.
